

Connecting Tableau to an Excel File

Step 1: Open Tableau

1. Open Tableau Desktop/Tableau Public.
2. On the start page, look at the Connect section.
3. Click Microsoft Excel.

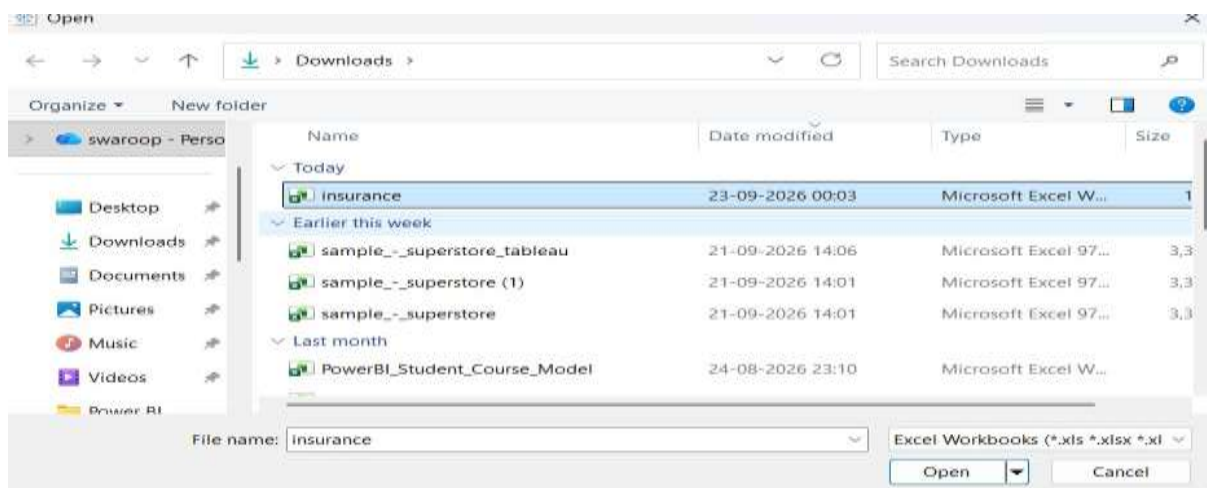

Screenshot 1: Capture the Tableau start page showing Microsoft Excel under Connect.

Step 2: Select the Excel file

1. The file browser will open.
2. Go to the folder where your Excel file is saved.
3. Select your .xlsx file.
4. Click Open.

Screenshot 2: Capture the file-selection window with your Excel file selected.

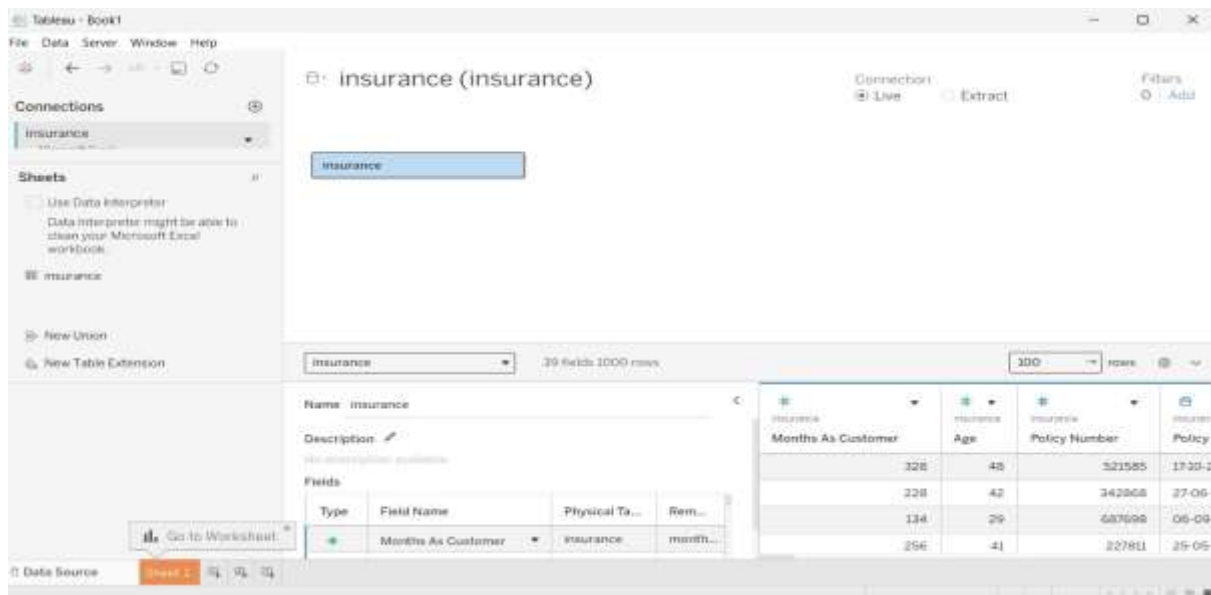

Step 3: Excel Data Source page

After opening the file, Tableau takes you to the Data Source page.

You will see the available sheets/tables from the Excel file.

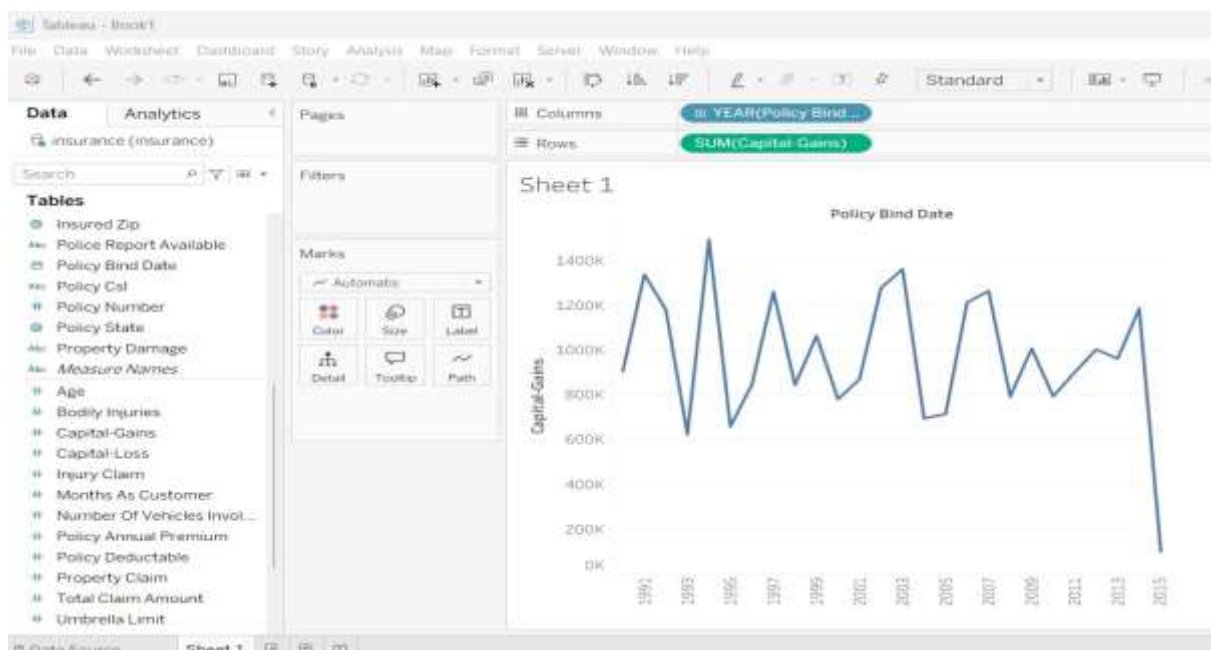

Screenshot 3: Capture the Data Source page showing the Excel sheets.

Step 4: Select a sheet And Open worksheet

1. From the left side, find the required sheet.
2. Drag the sheet into the area saying Drag tables here.

Screenshot 4: Capture the sheet after dragging it into the canvas.

Connecting Tableau to a CSV File

Step 1: Open Tableau

Open Tableau and go to the Connect section.

Select:

Text File

CSV files are treated as text files in Tableau.

Screenshot 5: Capture the Tableau start page showing Text File.

Step 2: Select the CSV file

1. The file browser will open.
2. Find your .csv file.
3. Select the file.
4. Click Open.

Screenshot 6: Capture the file-selection window with the CSV file selected.

Step 3: Data Source page

Tableau will open the Data Source page.

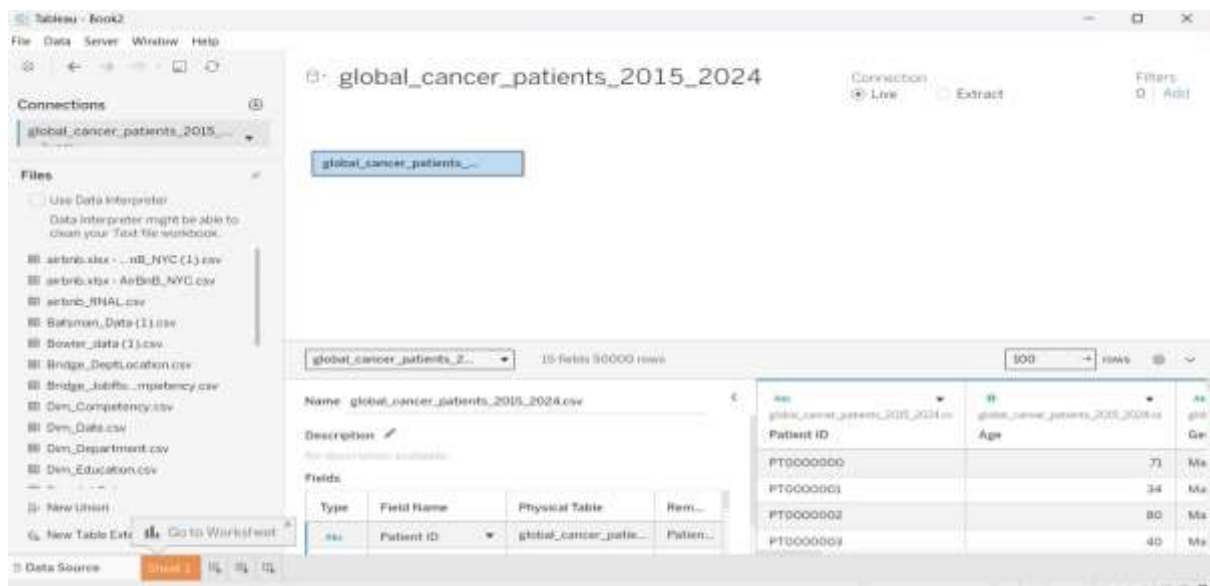

Your CSV data will appear as a table.

Check the data

Look at the data preview and verify:

- Field names
- Data types
- Values
- Number of columns

Screenshot 7: Capture the data preview.

Step 5: Open the worksheet

Click: Sheet

1 at the bottom.

Your CSV data is now connected to Tableau and ready for visualization.

Screenshot 8: Capture the worksheet with the CSV fields visible in the Data pane.

